

This statement, pursuant to the Modern Slavery Act 2018 (Cth), describes the risks of modern slavery in the operations and supply chain of BBQSAM Holdings Pty Ltd (ABN 41 159 613 706) (trading as Amart Furniture), and includes information about actions taken to address those risks for the financial year ended 30 June 2023.

Modern slavery includes trafficking in persons, slavery, servitude, forced marriage, forced labour, debt bondage, deceptive recruitment for labour or services; and the worst forms of child labour. BBQSAM is committed to limiting the risks of modern slavery, within its supply chains or through any other business relationship.

This statement, which is intended to meet the requirements of section 13 of the Modern Slavery Act 2018 (Cth), outlines the steps taken by BBQSAM during the past year to seek to minimise the risk of modern slavery occurring in its business and its supply chains.

Our structure, operations and supply chain

Amart Furniture is an Australian retailer of furniture, bedding and homewares. Amart Furniture employs over 1,000 team members around Australia at 69 stores, 4 distribution centres and the Store Support Centre at 41 Brickworks Place, Rochedale QLD 4123. In addition to physical stores, the company also operates an online store which offers home delivery to all areas of Australia, and a click and collect service through the DC network.

Amart Furniture directly engages contractors for specific projects or specialist roles in the Store Support Centre from time to time, indirectly engages contractors through labour hire companies in our distribution centres, and engages drivers (both directly and indirectly) to deliver our products from port to customers via distribution centres and stores.

The majority of products sold across Amart Furniture's network are sourced from suppliers based overseas. Amart Furniture also purchases products from Australian based suppliers, which are produced within Australia from Australian and overseas sourced materials, or sourced directly from overseas. All products sourced directly by Amart Furniture from overseas suppliers originate from supply chains based in the Asia region, principally China, Vietnam and Malaysia, in order of volume.

Amart Furniture also procures a diverse range of goods and services in connection with its business operations at its retail stores, distribution centres and Store Support Centre including office supplies (IT equipment and stationery), cleaning and waste disposal services, store development services (store fit out) and other services (marketing, consultancy and professional services).

Our approach to modern slavery risks in our operations and supply chains

Supply chains associated with BBQSAM's products are diverse and extend through various geographic locations.

Risk Assessments

Risk assessments are conducted to determine which parts of the business are most at risk from modern slavery so efforts can be focused on the areas most 'at risk' and/or have low controls effectiveness.

These assessments are updated each year to reflect the most current conditions in our supply chain. This was done within the period covered by this statement as well (Financial Year 2023).

Our risk assessments have shown that the majority of our domestic suppliers agreements include Modern Slavery Act provisions and our standard terms for trade with international suppliers require adherence with human and civil rights, child protection laws and specifically prohibit slavery, duress and deprivation of liberty.

Risk assessment/mitigation measures in place include the following for our domestic and international product suppliers:

- Limited supply partners;
- Physical inspection of factories by Amart buying team, factory audits ;
- A standard Modern Slavery clause included in all new contracts
- Requirements to invest in best in class worker safety and automation to remove any injury prone activities;
- Regular collaboration among supply chain for product and safety enhancement;
- Regular reviews to ensure market prices are paid that encompass best practices; and
- Supplier/service provider questionnaires which provide the ability to assess and take action against Modern Slavery risks in the supply chain
- Internal training programs to generate/enhance understanding of Modern Slavery risks and mitigation for all Team Members and Managers involved in hiring and issuing contracts

Whistleblower Protection Policy

Amart Furniture has a Whistleblower Protection Policy which is intended to ensure that concerns regarding unethical or illegal practices, which includes modern slavery concerns, can be reported. For the purposes of the policy, reports can be made via an independently operated whistleblower hotline. Reports can be made anonymously, and our whistleblowing protection processes are intended to ensure that the anonymity of people making whistleblowing reports is protected as required by the Whistleblower Protection Act.

---

Supplier Questionnaires/Factory Audits

Amart has this year embarked on an extensive factory audit program where risk assessments are directly conducted by the Amart Buying Team utilising a comprehensive factory audit template that reviews and assesses a wide range of factors including safety, working conditions, quality, security and environmental considerations.

Of the key 30 overseas factories which make up more than 90% of purchasing, 12 have been audited at the time of this statement. The remaining are scheduled to be completed in 2024.

In addition to the factory audits, Amart also uses self-assessment questionnaires from all major service providers who utilise a large base of contractors/employees. The responses are reviewed and assessed to satisfy ourselves that they have acceptable level of controls in place against risks of Modern Slavery. Information provided by suppliers has been verified on site through supplier visits by Amart team members.

We recognise the importance of assisting our suppliers and others in the supply chain to continually improve their practices.

Amart Modern Slavery Policy

Amart Furniture has a Modern Slavery policy (developed and communicated in FY21) that sets out the minimum standards expected of Amart Furniture's suppliers in areas of labour, environment and governance matters.

Among other things, the Modern Slavery policy establishes minimum requirements that suppliers commit to, and we will continue to ensure that within our supply chain:

- all applicable laws and regulations are complied with and does not involve bribery or corruption in any form;
- policies and procedures are maintained to allow violations, misconduct or grievances to be reported by workers and addressed without fear of retaliation;
- all work is freely chosen without the use of forced or compulsory labour;
- a zero tolerance approach is taken to the use of illegal child labour; and
- workers' rights to lawfully and peacefully form or join trade unions of their choosing and to bargain collectively are respected.

---

Team Awareness

Amart's Modern Slavery Policy has been circulated within the business to ensure all team members are aware of Amart's commitment to upholding the minimum standards expected. It is part of Amart standard Policies and Procedures.

In addition, further steps are in place to enhance team awareness. We have engaged an external training company to deliver online training to 30 Amart Team Members who are involved in managing supply and service contracts. The training is planned to be carried out in early 2024.

Conclusion

BBQSAM acknowledges the importance of seeking to ensure that modern slavery is eliminated from our supply chains and we understand the role we can play in achieving that. We are committed to the ongoing delivery of our Modern Slavery initiatives. This statement was approved by the Board of BBQSAM Holdings Pty Ltd and prepared in consultation with the Amart Furniture Pty Ltd management team.

Lee Chadwick

Director