The main principles and rules governing our actions as well as the standards we set ourselves in our dealings with business partners and stakeholders are summarized in the thyssenkrupp Code of Conduct. These include the prohibition of child labor, forced labor and any violation of the core labor standards. ## Supply Chain

thyssenkrupp Supplier Code of Conduct

In the thyssenkrupp Supplier Code of Conduct we outline the expectations we have towards our suppliers with respect to human rights and labor conditions, health & safety, environmental protection and business ethics. The topics forced labour and human trafficking as well as the use of conflict minerals in our supply chain are addressed explicitly. We strive to only work with suppliers whose business activities fully comply with the principles of the thyssenkrupp Supplier Code of Conduct and who signed the related documents.

Risk based Sustainability Audits

We regularly conduct risk analyses for our supply chain where we consider country and sector risks as well as other criteria. If this analysis shows that there is an elevated risk level regarding specific suppliers, then we strive to conduct a risk-based sustainability audit. It is one of our group wide Indirect Financial Targets to conduct a minimum of 100 supplier sustainability audits annually regarding policies, management practices and performance in all topics of the thyssenkrupp Supplier Code of Conduct. In Fiscal Year 2019/2020, 86 suppliers were audited. An independent and specialized audit company is performing the audits.

We will continue to update our regulations and procedures as required to ensure it maintains appropriate safeguards against any mistreatment of persons involved in our supply chain or own business.
