We value and observe all laws regarding corporate social responsibility, environmental and workplace safety protection, staff inclusion and diversity.

The supply chain for our company is relatively simple and includes the purchase of products and services needed for the businesses day-to-day operations including office supplies, bulk fuel and lubricant supplies, training of staff with accredited local providers, external legal advice, leasing of office space, IT infrastructure and support services and travel.

RA Finance & Administration and Human Resources teams have various policies in place that support our day-to-day operations to ensure all staff and suppliers meet RA core values.

Process

Particular steps we will be undertaken, in partnership with our peak governing body ACAPMA, which will include:

1. Assessing the potential modern slavery risks in our operations and supply chains with emphasis on high risk geographical locations and business transactions.
2. Developing and reviewing company policies on modern slavery in operations and supply chains.
3. Developing training for staff in modern slavery requirements.
4. Preparing to conduct due diligence on local and global supply chains.
5. Reviewing supplier contracts to ensure they contain terms that are consistent with the Act, and
6. Taking steps to address any potential modern slavery risks identified.
